About this booklet

There are two parts to this booklet. The first part is Important Information about this Policy including information about how we'll protect your privacy and how to make a complaint or access our dispute resolution service.

The second part is your Policy Wording which sets out the detailed terms, conditions and exclusions of the Policy.

Because we don't know your own personal circumstances, you should treat any advice in this booklet as purely general in nature. It doesn't consider your objectives, financial situation or needs. You should carefully consider the information provided with regard to your personal circumstances to decide if it's right for you.

This booklet is also a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). Other documents you receive may comprise the PDS. You'll know when this happens because it'll say so in the document.

Information in this PDS might change. If the change is adverse and might affect a reasonable person's decision to buy the policy, then either a supplementary PDS (SPDS) or a new PDS will be provided at renewal. You can get a copy of all updates (whether adverse or not adverse) at no charge by your financial services provider, simply by calling them.

Important Information

The information provided in this section includes high level information about this Policy including privacy, how to make a claim, our dispute resolution process and other relevant information. This section may also set out other information such as options in cover you can choose from, factors that affect the cost and any cooling-off rights.

Group policies: about your right to access cover

This is a group policy which the insured has entered into with us for the period of insurance. You may be eligible to claim under it as a third party beneficiary, provided you met the eligibility criteria specified in the Policy, or under a particular cover, at the time loss or damage occurred.

You can't cancel or vary the Policy – only the insured and we can do this. If the policy is cancelled or varied by us, we don't need to obtain your consent.

We also don't provide you with any notices in relation to this Policy. We only send notices to the insured as it's the only entity we have contractual obligations to.

You're not obliged to accept any of the benefits of this Policy but if you make a claim, you'll be bound by its terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions.

Neither we nor the insured hold the cover(s) or the benefits provided under the Policy on trust or for your benefit or on your behalf.

The insured also doesn't:

- act on behalf of us or you in relation to the Policy;
- provide, and is not authorised to provide, any financial product advice, recommendations or opinions about the Policy or any cover; and
- receive any remuneration or other benefits from us.

If you're seeking to access the benefit of the Policy, you should consider obtaining advice as to whether it is appropriate for your needs from a person who is licensed to give such advice.

Nothing prevents you from entering into other arrangements regarding insurance.

To confirm if you may have access to the Policy, and its currency, please refer to the 'For more information' or 'How to make a claim' sections at the front of this booklet.

Privacy

We take the security of your personal information seriously.

We will collect personal information directly from you when you deal with us, or sometimes through our agents, other companies in the QBE group or suppliers acting on our behalf. We will only ever collect the personal information we need in order to provide our services to you, such as issuing and administering our products and services and processing claims. We will obtain consent before collecting sensitive information, such as health information, unless we are required or permitted by law to collect it without consent. Sometimes we may store and disclose your personal information overseas. When we do this, we ensure your information is retained in accordance with the Australian Privacy Act 1988 and local privacy laws.

Our Privacy Policy describes in more detail from whom we collect personal information, as well as where we store it and the ways we could use it. You can find it at qbe.com/au/about/governance/privacy-policy

If you would like to access or correct your personal information please contact us at customer care@qbe.com or on 1300 650 503.

General Insurance Code of Practice

QBE is a signatory to the General Insurance Code of Practice (Code) and is committed to providing high standards of service. The Code covers topics like buying insurance, how claims are handled, what happens if financial hardship occurs, and complaint handling. You can read the Code at codeofpractice.com.au

The Code Governance Committee is an independent body that monitors and enforces insurers' compliance with the Code. For more information about the Code Governance Committee please visit insurancecode.org.au

We recognise that family and domestic violence is a complex issue and we take it seriously. For more information about support, our Family and Domestic Violence Customer Support Policy is available at qbe.com/au

Cooling-off period

If the insured changes their mind about their Policy and haven't made a claim, they can cancel it within 21 days of the start or renewal date and we'll give them a full refund. If they cancel their Policy in these circumstances, they will have no cover under the Policy.

To cancel their Policy within the cooling-off period, the insured should contact their financial services provider.

The insured can also cancel their Policy outside the cooling-off period.

How to make a claim

Full details of what you must do for us to consider your claim are provided in the 'Claims' section at the end of this booklet. To make a claim under this Policy please contact:

Complaints

We're here to help. If you're unhappy with any of our products or services, or the service or conduct of any of our suppliers, please let us know and we'll do our best to put things right.

Step 1 – Talk to us

Your first step is to get in touch with the team looking after your Policy, direct debit or claim. You'll find their contact details on your policy documents, letters or emails from us.

Please provide our team with as much information as possible so they can try to fix the problem quickly and fairly.

For additional assistance in lodging a complaint, please refer to qbe.com/au

Step 2 – Customer Relations

If your complaint isn't resolved by the team looking after your Policy, direct debit or claim, you can ask them to refer your complaint on to our Customer Relations team. A Dispute Resolution Specialist will review your complaint independently and provide you with our final decision.

You can also contact the Customer Relations team directly:

Policy Wording

This Policy is underwritten and issued by QBE Insurance (Australia) Limited ABN 78 003 191 035 AFSL 239545.

Our agreement with the insured

This Policy is a legal contract between the insured and us. The insured pays us the premium and you may access the benefit of these covers, provided that you met the eligibility criteria at the time loss or damage occurred. There are also:

- conditions and exclusions which apply to specific covers or sections;
- general exclusions, which apply to any claim you make ('General exclusions'); and
- general conditions, which set out your responsibilities under this Policy ('General conditions');
- other terms, which apply to how this Policy operates ('Other terms').

Excesses

If you make a claim, you must pay the applicable excess for every claim you make under each section of a cover.

How much we will pay

The most we will pay for a claim is the sum insured applicable to the section you are claiming under which is set out in the Policy Schedule, less any excess.

What we will pay

We will pay amounts set out in the compensation tables in this section of the Policy to you if the payable conditions shown:

- occur during the period of insurance; and
- are a result of injury which occurs while on a journey.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly out of any illness.

The exclusions and general conditions set out in this Policy may also affect a claim.

Capital benefits restrictions

- Any payable condition claimed under capital benefits must occur within 12 months of the date of injury.
- Any capital benefit payable will be reduced by any amount of any other capital benefit we have paid or are liable to pay in connection with the same injury.
- Any capital benefit payable under this section will be reduced by any amounts paid under the disappearance capital benefit.
- The maximum amount we will pay for any one event involving more than one insured person is the aggregate limit of liability shown in the Policy Schedule. If this amount is not enough to pay all claims in full, then we will reduce each insured person's benefit proportionately.

5. If we do not agree with the opinion provided by a registered medical practitioner in relation to payable conditions 2 or 3, we will, at our own expense, appoint another registered medical practitioner to examine you. If the registered medical practitioner appointed by us disagrees with the opinion of the first registered medical practitioner with respect to payable conditions 2 or 3, we will (at our expense) arrange for you to be examined by an independent registered medical practitioner, who will be appointed in mutual agreement by you and us. In that case, the compensation amount we pay (if any) for either payable condition 2 or 3 will be based solely on the opinion of the independent registered medical practitioner.

Additional benefit applicable to Section A - Capital benefits

The following additional benefit automatically applies.

Disappearance benefit

If you are travelling on a conveyance, and:

- the means of transportation disappears, sinks or is wrecked; and
- your body has not been found within one year or a coroner's report or police report has been issued confirming the presumption that you have died as a result of injury, we will pay the death benefit to your Estate or as otherwise required by law, unless we have sufficient grounds to suspect that you may not have perished.

If we have paid the disappearance benefit we will not pay any other capital benefits under this policy.

Section B – Weekly Benefits – Injury

What we will pay

We will pay amounts as set out in the Policy Schedule to you if the payable conditions shown:

- occur during the period of insurance; and
- are a result of injury which occurs while on a journey.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises:

- from an existing medical condition as defined in words with special meanings; or
- when a journey is undertaken against medical advice; or
- directly out of any illness.

Weekly benefit – Injury restrictions

- (a) Any payable condition claimed must occur within 12 months of the date of injury.
- (b) Successive periods of disablement resulting from the same injury will be considered as one period of disablement.
- (c) Weekly benefits will be paid after the excluded period of claim as shown in the Policy Schedule has elapsed.
- (d) We will continue to pay weekly benefits while you suffer disablement and are entirely prevented from returning to your usual occupation, business or profession up to the benefit period shown in the Policy Schedule.

Section C – Overseas Medical and Additional Expenses

Words with special meanings in this section C

In this section the following words have the meanings set out below:

Word or term	Meaning

Emergency optical	treatment as a result of injury which is non-routine and which in the opinion of a qualified optical practitioner, cannot be reasonably delayed until you return to Australia.

What we will pay

We will pay the amounts as set out in the compensation tables in this section of the Policy if your medical and additional expenses:

- are incurred outside of Australia during the period of travel as set out in the Policy Schedule; and
- are incurred within 24 months of the date of injury or illness; and
- are a result of injury or illness which occurs while on a journey outside of Australia.

What we will not pay

We will not pay for any claim under this section of the Policy if the claim arises directly or indirectly out of any of the following:

- an existing medical condition as defined in words with special meanings; or
- when a journey is undertaken against medical advice; or
- when a journey is undertaken for the purpose of obtaining medical treatment; or
- a terminal illness diagnosed prior to the commencement date of the journey.

Overseas medical and additional expenses restrictions

We will reduce our payment by any amounts recoverable by you from any other source such as Workers Compensation or another statutory scheme or private health insurance.

The exclusions and general conditions set out in this Policy may also affect a claim.

Compensation table – Overseas medical

General conditions

When making a claim, you must have met and then continue to comply with the conditions of this Policy. There are conditions set out in these general conditions, in the claims section and under each particular cover and section. If any of these conditions of this Policy are not met, we may refuse to pay a claim or reduce the amount we pay for a claim.

If you make a fraudulent claim we may also refuse to pay that claim or reduce the amount we pay you for it.

Declaring Travel

You must declare all trips prior to the commencement of your journey by registering each trip through the union website.

Assistance and co-operation

You must provide reasonable assistance to us, including:

- being truthful and frank at all times;
- telling us as soon as possible if you've been contacted by someone about an incident, such as another insurer or a third party's lawyer;
- attending one or more interviews about the claim if we ask you to;
- appearing in court and giving evidence if needed.

At all times you must refrain from behaving in a way that is improper, hostile or threatening towards us, our representatives or third parties involved in an incident.

If you don't cooperate in any of these ways, it may delay your claim, or we may reduce or refuse to pay your claim.

Reasonable actions and precautions

You must take reasonable care to prevent damage, injury or loss. At all times, you must:

- prevent damage to property insured, as well as to others and their property;
- minimise the cost of any claim under this Policy.

There is no cover under any section of your Policy for any claim, loss, cost, damage, injury, death or legal liability, to the extent that it is caused by or arises from you not complying with all laws relating to the safety of a person or damage to property.

Contribution and other insurance

When making a claim, you must notify us of any other insurance that you're aware will or may, whether in whole or in part, cover any loss insured under your policy.

If at the time of any loss, damage or liability there's any other insurance (whether issued to you or any other person) which covers the same loss, damage or liability you must provide us with any reasonable assistance we require to make a claim for contribution from any other insurer(s).

Preventing our right of recovery

If you've agreed with or told someone who caused you loss, damage or liability covered by your policy that you won't hold them responsible then, to the extent we've been prejudiced by this act, we won't cover you for that loss, damage or liability.

Claims

What you must do after an incident

1. If anything happens that is likely to lead to a claim you must:
 - follow medical advice from a qualified medical practitioner as soon as possible after sustaining injury or illness;
 - tell the financial services provider as soon as possible. You will be provided with a claim form and advice on the procedure to follow;
 - complete our claim form and return it to us within 30 days;
 - at our expense, undergo any medical examination by a registered medical practitioner appointed by us if we reasonably require it;
 - obtain evidence from a registered medical practitioner as soon as you are aware of signs or symptoms of a condition, in the case of mental illness; and
 - provide us with any relevant information about the claim we ask for including:
 - > reports from police, transport provider hotel or other authority;
 - > reports or certificates from a registered medical practitioner;
 - > your mental health treatment plan if your claim is the result of mental illness;
 - > accounts and receipts;
 - > valuations and proof or evidence of ownership;
 - > letters and notices you receive from anyone else about the claim;
 - if in doubt at any time, ring your financial services provider for advice.
2. You must give us written notice as soon as possible of every claim, writ, summons or proceedings, including any prosecution or inquest, and all relevant information in regard to matters which may lead to liability under this Policy.
3. As soon as an event that can justify a claim occurs, you must make reasonable endeavours to minimise the loss, damage or liability.
4. We have the right to make admissions. We may refuse to indemnify or cover you if you admit fault, make any offer of payment or defend a claim in court without our consent.
5. We will be entitled to conduct in your name the defence or settlement of any claim or to prosecute in your name.
6. We will pay benefits to you unless the insured instructs us to do otherwise.

How claims administration and legal proceedings are undertaken

When we pay a claim under your Policy, we have the right to exercise your legal rights in your name against the person responsible for the loss or damage.

We'll take full control of the administration, conduct or settlement of the recovery, including any legal defence. When we do any of these things in your name, it will be at our expense, however you'll need to give us reasonable assistance which may include giving us statements, documents or evidence in any legal proceedings. This may also include following our directions in relation to the conduct of any legal proceedings even after a claim has been paid. During the administration, conduct or settlement of the recovery, you can seek an update on the status of proceedings and we will consult you where appropriate.

When we pay a claim and some of the loss isn't covered by your Policy, we may offer to try to recover that loss for you when we take any steps to recover the covered loss. We can only do so if you agree to give us documents that support your loss and agree with us on how we'll handle that recovery.

You may also need to contribute to the associated costs if, to recover the loss for you, we need to take additional steps that we wouldn't otherwise need to take. We will talk to you about these steps before we take them.

If you've received a benefit under your Policy that you were not entitled to, we reserve the right to recover from you the amount we have paid. If we decline a claim for fraud, we reserve the right to recover our reasonable administration, investigation and legal costs.

What can affect a claim

We will reduce the amount of a claim by the excess shown in the Policy Terms and Conditions or on the Policy Schedule.

We may refuse to pay a claim if you are in breach of any of the conditions of this Policy, including any endorsements noted on or attached to the Policy Schedule.

We pay only once for loss or damage from the same event covered by this Policy even if it is covered under more than one section of the Policy.

We may be entitled to refuse to pay or to reduce the amount of a claim if:

- it is in any way fraudulent; or
- any fraudulent means or devices are used by you or anyone acting on your behalf to obtain any benefits under this Policy.

Other terms

These other terms apply to how this Policy operates.

Aggregate limits of liability

The aggregate limit of liability is the maximum amount we will pay for any one event involving more than one insured person on the same journey. If this amount is not enough to pay all claims in full, then we will reduce each insured person's benefit proportionately.

The aggregate limit of liability is shown in the Policy Schedule. This limit applies to Sections A, B, E, F and I of the Policy except as stated below:

1. Non-scheduled flights (including helicopter and light aircraft) – the aggregate limit of liability applicable to an event involving travel in a non-scheduled flight is shown in the Policy Schedule.
2. The aggregate limit of liability does not apply to the following sections of the Policy:
 - Section C (Overseas medical and additional expenses); or
 - Section D (Emergency travel assistance); or
 - Section H (Loss of deposits and additional expenses).
3. Section G (Personal Liability): the aggregate limit of liability does not apply to this section of the Policy. Our limit of liability under this section of the Policy for any one occurrence will be limited to the amount shown in the Policy Schedule.

Currency

The values and limits shown in this PDS are in Australian dollars (AUD). If expenses are incurred in another currency, then the rate of currency exchange used to calculate the amount of compensation to Australian dollars will be the rate at the date the expense is incurred.

Jurisdiction

This Policy will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Australia. Any dispute under this Policy will be resolved in accordance with the laws of Australia.

If any of these conditions are not met, we may refuse to pay a claim or reduce the amount we pay for a claim.

Other interests

Any person or persons whose interests you have told us about and we have noted on your Policy Schedule are bound by the terms of this Policy in relation to any claim they make.

Subrogation, recovery action and uninsured loss

We may at any time, at our expense and in your name, use all legal means available to you of securing reimbursement for loss or damage arising under your Policy. In the event we do so, you agree to give all reasonable assistance for that purpose.

If you've suffered loss that wasn't covered by your Policy as a result of the incident, we may offer to attempt to recover this. You may also specifically ask us to recover this for you. You'll need to give us documents supporting your loss. Before we include any uninsured loss in the recovery action we'll also ask you to agree to the basis on which we'll handle your recovery action. You may need to contribute to legal costs in some circumstances.

References to legislation

Legislation referenced in this Policy includes subsequent legislation. Any term used in this Policy and defined by reference to legislation will have the meaning given in any replacement definition or definition with materially the same object or purpose in subsequent legislation.
